The purpose of Bethel Bible Camp is to teach the good news of Jesus Christ and to train and encourage people in their daily walk with God. Bethel Bible Camp is operated solely on the basis that God provides for all our needs, both with staff volunteers and with monetary provisions. He has graciously provided at Bethel for more than 60 years, enabling all campers to attend without paying registration fees. Bethel Bible Camp does not rely on any government grants or funding.

about family camp:
Family Camp at Bethel Bible Camp is a great opportunity to spend time with your family in a relaxed setting and in an atmosphere of Christian love. The time spent at Family Camp will allow you to grow in the knowledge and love of God. At designated times, a children's program will run concurrently with a Christian education time for adults. There will also be a program for teens. A mix of organized activities for the whole family combined with a relaxing time for mom and dad while the kids participate in activities geared to their age groups will help make this long weekend memorable moments at your family's dinner time talk for a long time.
